

DRONES & DIRTY WARS:

PRELUDE TO DRONE DAYS OF ACTION 2014

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 2 • 7:00 PM—8:30 PM
COMMUNITY CHURCH • 40 E. 35TH ST., NYC

A LIVE PROGRAM & INTERNATIONAL WEBCAST IN SUPPORT OF THE Spring Days of Action — 2014, a coordinated campaign in April and May to End Drone Killing, Drone Surveillance and Global Militarization

Featuring:

Maria LaHood, Senior Staff Attorney, Center for Constitutional Rights. Specializes in international human rights litigation, seeking to hold government officials and corporations accountable for torture, extrajudicial killings, and war crimes abroad.

Madiha Tahir, film maker, Wounds of Waziristan. An independent journalist reporting on conflict, culture and politics in Pakistan, she has followed the U.S. drone attacks there for years.

Carl Dix, Vietnam War resister and Revolutionary Communist Party. A leader of protests against police brutality, stop-and-frisk, and founder, with Cornel West, of the Stop Mass Incarceration Network.

With information from the Granny Peace Brigade, kNOwdrones and World Can't Wait on what you can do to in your schools and communities to create a political situation where the U.S. is forced to back off from using targeted killing in our name, and from using drones for surveillance by police, the FBI, the National Security Agency and other government agencies.

SPONSORED BY kNOwdrones • World Can't Wait • Action for Justice Committee •
The Community Church of New York Unitarian Universalist
